

Wisconsin Visual Artists
South Central Chapter

Meeting Minutes January 21, 2020

Program

The South Central Chapter member meeting was held at Steenbock Gallery, 1922 University Ave., Madison, 6-9 pm.

Welcome

Four new members introduced themselves and their medium: Savanna, acrylic and alcohol ink on yupo; Kathy Walter, assemblages; Nan Zindars, paint; and Elizabeth Kelly, watercolor. The rest of the members introduced themselves, their medium, and any art shows.

Reports

The airport show is going up January 29. Janet Nelson reports Tandem is doing the hanging, advertising, and reception, which will be March 21, 1-3 pm.

Jayne would like any member ideas for programs for 2020. There have been some offers of artists to visit their studios.

Announcements

The State Board is meeting January 25 10-noon in West Bend. Jayne and Mary Tipton are attending. All members are welcome. Updates to the constitution and bylaws in accordance with 501-3C rules will be voted on. Peggy Zalucha will be honored with an award. The South Central Chapter is donating a Lee Weiss award for an artist accepted for the first-time to the Biennial.

Wisconsin Biennial opens Saturday January 25, 1-5 pm. The State Board will tour the Biennial following the business meeting.

Volunteers are transporting art to Alverno College for a show opening January 31.

Program

Peggy Flora Zalucha spoke of her art, which was hanging in the Steenbock Gallery. Much of the displayed art was about deconstructing and reconstructing into new pieces.

A group critique of other artist's work followed.

New Business

February meeting is at the Holiday Inn Express with Jayne speaking of her art experience in Russia. March meeting is the airport Art is in the Air reception.

The meeting adjourned around 9 pm.

Merikay Payne, secretary