Old Business

Ted Injasulian made the motion to accept March SE Chapter Minutes, Tori Tasch seconded, members present voted to accept March SE Chapter Members Meeting.

New Business

Odd Month Challenge – The results of voting for the March Odd Month Challenge are: 3rd place: Judy Sebranek and Steven Bauer, 2nd place: Cindy Hansen, Gail Willert and David Bueschel, and 1st place went to Jeanne Cole Panka who wins a $25 Blick Gift Card. The theme for May's Odd Month Challenge is Green.

Leadership/Elections - Elections for Chairperson, Vice Chairperson(s), Treasurer and Secretary will be held at the May meeting. Steven and Patti are running for another term each as Chairperson and Secretary. Patti Belbin nominated Tori Tasch for Treasurer of the Southeast Chapter. We are still in need of a Vice Chairperson(s). Please consider and reach out to Steven. Member who can't be present at the May meeting may submit their votes via response to the recent Newsletter.

Exhibits: The next exhibit for the Southeast Chapter will be Turn Up the Heat at Inspiration Studios in West Allis. Please see the prospectus and details at the WVA website. Volunteers will be needed to man Gallery Hours (10-2) Saturdays during July.

Are you interested in having an in person get together during July, instead of a Zoom meeting? In conjunction with a show, or going to another exhibit as a group? Daytime? Please send ideas and thoughts to Steven.

Helene Fishman spoke about Residency's at National and State Parks, shared photos of her work and details of the residencies. She also provided suggestions for how to apply to make your application standout, some of the requirements (different at different places), and her experience.

May programming: Doug Haynes, from the SC Chapter, will speak about his creation of an Adult Coloring Book.
