New Business

All members have a profile spot available on WVA website. Directions on how to populate your profile can be found on the website and on the WVA Facebook page. Website Artist Profiles are public, available to members and nonmembers.

Treasury/Finance

The following items were approved unanimously by the membership present upon a Motion by Rosie Hartmann with a Second by Patti Belbin ($2600 total of approximate $8500 available):

$2000 for Biennial Show Award

An additional $100 for online, Facebook/Instagram, to support Transitions Show at the Anderson.

$500 to Biennial Show for advertising for submissions and the actual show.

SE Chapter Facebook Group:

Going forward your posts must be public or it will be deleted. This is to ensure that all members of the Group can view all posts.

New Member Interest:

If you know someone who might be interested in joining the WVA, you can direct them to our YouTube channel, Instagram or Facebook pages, or WisconsinVisualArtists.org.

Future Shows:

Artist Showcase 2022: Still seeking a venue

Artist Showcase 2023: Anderson Art Museum in Kenosha.

We are aiming for 2-3 online shows during 2022. 1st show will be Abstract, No Jury, Online Only, Open Cal for approximately 40 pieces. If you are interested in helping out for this show, please contact Steven (sechapter@wisconsinvisualartists.org).

Content Contributor:

Mara Duncan has volunteered to provide written content/blog about WVA member artists. If you feel you would like to or are compelled to write about art or artists, inspirations, problem solving, collaboration, referred experiences or other art related subjects, please contact Steven sechapter@wisconsinvisualartists.org). Website content will be Google Indexed and generate views and exposure for the group and artists.

Volunteer Opportunities:

Any member that would like to volunteer their services and talents to help in any way with the SE Chapter is invited to contact the Chapter Chair, Steven Bauer(sechapter@wisconsinvisualartists.org).
